

From Tegel to the Hotel President:

Walk to the exit. At the exit there is a BVG (bus co.) stand where you can buy an “A/B” ticket – Please retain all tickets for reimbursement purposes. A one-way trip costs €2.10. Depending on the day and time you arrive, you can also buy a “Day Pass”, which costs €6.10 and is good for travel till 3am the next day.

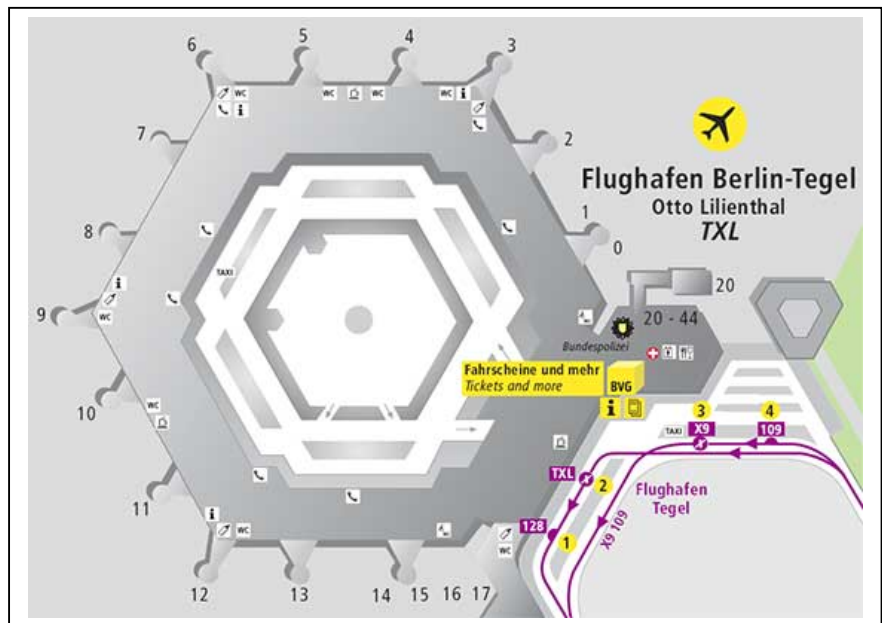

The X9 ExpressBus leaves from position “3” M-F every 10 min. as follows: From 6am-8pm at these minutes past the hour: 04, 14, 24, 34, 44 and 54.

After 8pm, on the hour and at these minutes past the hour: 10, 20, 30, 40, 50.

On Saturday before 10am, it leaves every 20 min. starting at 05:20. From 10-7pm, it follows the M-F times. After 7pm it leaves every 10 min. starting at 7:04.

At the Zoologischer Garten train station (end stop for the bus), exit the bus. There you'll see a McDonald's and a Dunkin' Donuts, among other shops. Walk in that direction towards bus stop marked number 5 on this map on the right.

From this bus stop you can take the M46 in the direction of Britz/Buschkrug for three stops (Kurfürstendamm, Europa Center, Wittenbergplatz). Get off the bus at the next stop, An der Urania, and cross the main road on your left. Walk straight ahead and the Hotel President is in the middle of the block.

Info – Ku'Damm:

Ku'Damm is the heart of the old upper-class West Berlin and even after reunification it represents the main retail center of Berlin - all the best and most expensive shops are located here. The area also includes some landmarks of great historical and cultural interest, as well as a large number of accommodation and entertainment options.

Info – Potsdamer Platz

After developing within the space of little over a century from an intersection of rural thoroughfares into the most bustling traffic intersection in Europe, it was totally laid waste during World War II and then left desolate during the Cold War era when the Berlin Wall bisected its former location, but since the fall of the Wall it has risen again as a glittering new heart for the city and the most visible symbol of the new Berlin.
